Drug & Alcohol

WHO WE ARE

The Drug & Alcohol Health Services Library is a state wide service funded by the NSW Health Mental Health and Drug and Alcohol Office (MHDAO).

Our goal is to provide a high quality and responsive information service that supports and promotes evidence based drug and alcohol practice in the NSW Health Service.

WHAT WE HAVE

The Library collection consists of:

- Over 2000 books, reports, conference papers, training packages
- Over 500 audio-visual materials
- 90 Australian and international journal titles

The collection's emphasis is on the psycho-social aspects of drug and alcohol use. Australian material is comprehensively collected.

WHO CAN USE DAHSL

Access to Library services is open to professionals in NSW working with drug and alcohol issues. This can include any of the following professionals:

- NSW Health staff
- Local Health District staff
- Allied Health professionals
- NGOs
- Justice Health
- General Practitioners
- Education professionals
- Miscellaneous health workers

LIBRARY SERVICES

Library services include:

- Comprehensive (subject) literature searches (using on-line databases and other electronic sources).
- Lending out books and DVDs from the collection – library membership is essential (loan period is 4 weeks with renewals available).
- A document delivery service that acquires externally held articles, books and audiovisual materials for our clients (we have borrowing access to the collections of any library in the country via the inter-library loan system).
- A journal article photocopy service.

We will supply copies to clients of any journal article(s) we hold – at minimal or no cost.

WE ALSO....

- Distribute a regular electronic Journal Contents Bulletin and New Publications Bulletin.
- Train and advise clients in the use of electronic databases, the Internet and other information resources, upon request.
- Advise clients on any other matters regarding information, or specific materials they may require.
