

Creating inclusive AOD services for gender and sexuality diverse people

G&SD Network Forum

When: 9:15 to 2:00, 20 July 2022 Where: Rydges in Sydney Central

9:15-9:45	Registration and coffee/tea The registration desk will open at 9:15am and coffee/tea will be available before the forum starts. Come say hello to the NADA team and G&SD Network, or chat to other NADA members.
9:45-10:00	Welcome to Country and Forum Introduction Roweena Walsh (MLALC) will provide a Welcome to Country. Sarah Etter (NADA)(she/they) will then open the forum and give an overview of the work of the G&SD Network.
10:00-10:30	An introduction to gender and sexuality diversity in AOD Settings Jack Freestone (ACON) (he/him) An overview of gender and sexuality diversity and what it means, as well as the LGBTQ+ acronym. Jack will then discuss the challenges faced by LGBTQ+ communities in AOD services.
10:30-11:00	Workshop: Pronouns and their use Leslie Peters (G&SD Network) (they/he) Hannah Gillard (NADA) (they/them)

	A workshop on the importance of using correct pronouns and their significance. Leslie and Hannah will suggest useful resources, advice for what to do when mistakes are made, and will facilitate a role play with the audience.
11:00-11:30	Morning Tea & Networking
	Panel Conversation: Improving and supporting inclusion for women with trans experiences in AOD services Estelle Clarke (BlaQ Aboriginal Corporation) (she/her) Naif-Jamie Martin (she/her) Roxy Tickle (she/her) Liz Duck-Chong (ACON) (she/her) Rusty Nannup (she/her) This panel will discuss the importance of the inclusion of women with trans experiences and sistergirls in AOD services. It will open a conversation around how AOD services can promote inclusivity, and its benefits.
12:30-1:00	Reflections and Brainstorming Forum Close Before the forum ends, attendees will have thirty minutes to discuss what they have taken away from the day and ways they might promote inclusivity in their own lives or workplaces.
12:30-1:30PM	LUNCH AND NETWORKING During lunch there will be an opportunity to network with members who are attending.