

Creating safe spaces

NADA Conference 11-12 May 2023 ICC Sydney Convention Centre

File modified: 22.03.2023

Day 1 – Thursday 11 May 2023

Keynote sessions recorded and streamed
9:00-9:05	Conference welcome: Robert Stirling (Chief Executive Officer, NADA)
9:05-9:20	Welcome to Country: Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council and smoking ceremony
9:20-9:35	Official welcome: TBC
9:35-9:45	Keynote welcome: Kevin Street, NADA Consumer Advisory Group (CAG)
9:45-10:15	Keynote: Felicity (Flic) Ryan will be delving into her experience of providing over a decade of cultural training to NADA members, and will discuss the gains she has witnessed, and where there is still work to be done.
10:15-10:45	Keynote panel: TBC
10:45-11:15	Morning tea – poster viewing
11:15-12:45	Individualised care Virtual + in person	Cross collaboration Virtual + in person	Harm reduction In person only	Data and outcomes In person only	Aboriginal yarning circle In person only
12:45-13:45	Lunch – poster viewing
13:45-14:25	Keynote: Dr Di and Papa Mark Kopua will look into how to stay connected while leaning into the discomfort of giving and receiving feedback, and its importance to the success of our individual and collective growth.
14:25-15:00	Keynote: Dr Jioji Ravulo will explore possibilities of creating safe spaces with diversity by unpacking the importance of practicing cultural humility, understanding the human element of our work, and supporting our professional and personal self care with humour.
15:00-15:30	Afternoon tea – poster viewing

15:30-16:30	Innovative approaches Virtual + in person	Families and carers Virtual + in person	Technology in practice In person only	Outreach In person only	Client centred care In person only
16:30	Day one close
16:30-18:00	Canapes and networking drinks

Day 2 – Friday 12 May 2023

Keynote sessions recorded and streamed
9:45-10:00	Welcome recap day 1: Robert Stirling (Chief Executive Officer, NADA)
10:00-10:15	Keynote: Dan Howard will discuss his deep dive into the state of drug law and policy in SN, and will consider whether the response so far been adequate, and what we can expect going forward.
10:15-10:45	Keynote panel: TBC
10:45-11:30	Keynote: Dr Vikki Reynolds
11:30-12:00	Morning tea
12:00-12:20	Keynote: Teddy Cook
12:20-13:00	Lunch – poster viewing
13:00-14:00
14:00-15:30	Innovative approaches Virtual + in person	Living and lived experience Virtual + in person	Continuing care In person only	Systems wide approaches In person only
15:30	Day two close and afternoon tea			